Hi Hannah,

As discussed, I am writing to inform you that there is currently a family situation and that Logan is presently in my care and residing with me and my parents. My priority remains ensuring stability, routine, and continuity for him, including his daycare attendance and daily activities. I will continue payments as usual.

Logan's wellbeing and care remain my highest priority.

At this time, my parents, Marc Suissa and Betty Wahnoun, will also be assisting me with facilitating Logan's pickups and drop-offs when needed as they were already involved occasionally.

I would appreciate your discretion and cooperation
