Patrick, this is the proof of how much of a narcissist you are

I also did Patrick and I cannot wait to get to $4000 per month

Hahahaaaa

But we all know it's bullshit because of your low self-esteem. You never leave any relationship. You stay until the girls call the shots out.

I also have a copy of the police report.

That's too bad you have college medecin because I just make one call and it's over

Where they documented the assault and my injuries and it states I refused to press charge for assault

Yes, and then the Counsellor that came for the police report actually Patrick was against you, and she told me that if it ever happens that she would actually pledge against you
